

National Divisions Immunisation Workshop

Immunisation Across the Whole of Life

The logical approach for GPs looking holistically at their patient's wellbeing.

Wednesday 2 August 2006

Novotel Sydney, Darling Harbour,

100 Murray Street Pyrmont

Program

- | | |
|----------------------|--|
| 8.30 – 9.00 | Registration and light refreshments |
| 9.00 – 9.15 | Welcome – Helen Moore, Principal Adviser for Immunisation, Australian Divisions of General Practice |
| 9.15 – 9.45 | Planning and Developing of a “Whole of Life Immunisation Register”
– Ian Krebs, Director of Immunisation, Department of Health and Ageing, |
| 9.45 – 10.30 | The Whole of Life – Dr Rod Pearce. Not just the Register, but protecting the patient for their Whole Life through better utilisation of existing vaccines and incorporating new and emerging vaccines into our practices. |
| 10.30 – 12.00 | Introduction to a World Café, discussions on the Whole Of Life possibilities served with Morning Tea. Gathering the force of ideas, not just the force of personalities. |
| 12.00 – 12.15 | World Café collation and brief feedback. Full reports of the World Café will be circulated through the State Based Offices with the Workshop report. |
| 12.15 – 12.45 | Lunch |
| 12.45 – 1.15 | Practice Nurses, Training & Best Practice - Julie Porritt, Principal Advisor for Nursing in General Practice, Australian Divisions of General Practice |

1.15 – 1.45	Innovations in Immunisation - Dr Greg Rowles. What else is new in Immunisation technology and best practice? How can we keep General Practice informed in this constantly updating area of practice?
1.45– 2.15	Cold-Chain Challenges – Jasmine Parker (QDGP) An overview of the Queensland Vaccine Management Project aiming to increase the quality of vaccine management amongst immunisation service providers by providing resources, education and support.
2.15 – 2.30	Afternoon Tea
2.30 – 3.00	National Division Immunisation Mapping , the results of the UltraFeedback survey of all Divisions in Australia - Mike Brooke RN MBA, Director of UltraFeedback
3.00 – 3.30	Summary, evaluation and Close