

Primary Care Led Mental Health Reform: Reaping the Benefits

9.00 - 9.20	Opening Address: The Hon Jeff Kennett, Chair, beyondblue: the national depression initiative
9.20 - 9.50	The general practice perspective: Dr Chris McAuliffe, Primary Mental Health Care Adviser, ADGP Ltd The allied health perspective: Ms Amanda Gordon, President, Australian Psychological Society Primary mental health care development: A psychiatrist's perspective: Dr Geoff Riley (STILL TBC)
9.50 - 10.05	The consumer and carer journey: Ms Ingrid Ozols and Ms Alana Peker, yyblue Ambassador
10.05 - 11.05	Ten years of Divisional primary mental health care action: Ms Leanne Wells, Manager Policy & Development/Principal Adviser Mental Health, ADGP Ltd Better Outcomes: the experience to date and lessons learnt: Professor Ian Hickie, Chair, Better Outcomes Evaluation Working Group Access to allied psychological services – Divisional service provision: Ms Jane Pirkis, University of Melbourne A focus of prevention and early intervention for families: Dr Matthew Sanders
11.05 - 11.35	Morning Tea
11.35 - 1.00	Integrating with State Health Services Chair: Dr Tori Wade	Early intervention for populations at risk of suicide Chair: Ms Tanja McLeish	From research to action Chair: Ms Leonie Young	Youth Chair: Ms Jane Westley
11.35 - 11.55	The Partners in Mind Initiative: Ms Kerry Bidwell, Project Co-ordinator: Queensland Division of General Practice	Overview of ASIST suicide prevention and first aid training workshop: Ms Marcella Barisic, LifeLine Australia	Policy and service development in primary mental health in New Zealand Dr Tony Dowell and Ms Kristan Johnston, NZ Ministry of Health	Young people taking charge: New approaches to providing mental health services to young people through primary care Mr Craig Hodges, Senior Program Manager, beyondblue: national depression initiative
11.55 - 12.15	“Building the Framework: Working with State Health”: Ms Kiara Garrard, SA Divisions of General Practice Inc	Toolkit for helping someone at risk of suicide Ms Marcella Barisic, LifeLine Australia		Eating disorders: Coordinating the link between primary and secondary care Dr S Byrne, Dr Anthea Fursland and Dr C Goodman Centre for Clinical Intervention
12.15 - 12.35	Discussion and Consultation Forum - “Shared Care, Divisions and State Health”	Alive and well in the Wheatbelt: A multidisciplinary collaboration of prevention and early intervention in	Development of a Youth health Program	MindMatters Plus GP: Review of initiatives and summary of learnings:

	Chaired by Dr Tori Wade, Medical Director, SA Divisions of General Practice Inc , with Ms Katie Prince: WA Development Liaison Officer Ms Sarah Bradfield: NSW Development Liaison Officer	addressing public awareness of suicidal behaviour Ms Dellys Sice, Deputy CEO/ Manager Division Services, Central Wheatbelt Division of General Practice	Ms Nicole Russell, Riverina Division of General Practice	Dr Johann Sheehan, Project Officer MindMatters+ GP Initiative, ADGP Ltd
12.35 - 12.55	Ms Anne Diamond: VIC Development Liaison Officer; and Ms Eleanor Jackson-Bowers, Research Librarian PARC	'Toughin it out' Dr Simon Bridges, QLD	The integration CBT for OCD into the primary care context – an evaluation of three models Mr Michael Kyrios et al. Swinburne University	Better outcomes for the wellbeing of our local school communities Ms Teresa O'Brien: Mallee Division of General Practice
1.00 - 2.00	Lunch
2.00 - 3.30	Psychologists working in the general practice setting Lead By: Prof Lyn Littlefield & Dr Louise Roufeil	Primary care partnerships Chair: Ms Leanne Wells	From research to action Chair: Ms Anne Diamond	Utilising GPs in program delivery Chair: Ms Sarah Bradfield
2.00 - 2.20	Psychologists Working in General Practice Settings: An interactive forum to discuss the most effective ways of psychologists collaborating with General Practitioners to share the care of patients with mental health problems. Topics will include:	Primary care partnerships and partnerships to care Dr Grant Blashki and Ms Ingrid Ozols	'Screening for depression in general practice and related medical setting' Professor Ian Hickie, Brain and Mind Institute	From Registrar to GP – SIGPET and CSDGP: An innovative workforce development partnership between Divisions and RTPs in mental health Mr Jerry Bacich, Project Officer Mental Health, Central Sydney Division of General Practice and Dr Louise Stone SIGPET
2.20 - 2.40	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Understanding the General Practice context Roles of GPs and psychologists in patient care What psychologists can offer Selection of appropriately trained psychologists 	Aboriginal Mental Health	'Is physical activity an effective treatment for depression in older people' Ms Janine Walker, Centre for Mental Health Research ANU	Promotion, prevention and early intervention in GP: Mental health training modules for GPs Ms Anne O'Hanlon and Ms Lesley McBride, Auseinet
2.40 - 3.00	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Employment conditions Patient management practices Communication between psychologists and GPs Evaluation of patient outcomes 	Managing the mix: the National Alcohol Comorbidity Project - A Perspective from WA Ms Kate van Koesveld, GP Coastal, WA and Ms Ann Bates, Osborne Division of General Practice	Allied health for mental health – Why do GPs refer? Ms Liz Cleland, Manager Allied Health, A Martin, C Barton, T Burgess, Adelaide Hills Divisions of General Practice and Southern Divisions of General Practice	Renovating the 'GPs in Schools' program Dr Carolyn Kefford, General Practitioner and Lecturer, Hornsby Kuring-gai Ryde Division of General Practice
3.00 - 3.20	Forum participants will then workshop the development of guidelines for	An innovative approach to improving access to health care for marginalized populations with mental health issues:	Building bridges to general practice: Illawarra evaluation Ms C Wilson, Illawarra Division of	GP mentors leading a regional approach to managing the mix Ms Lisa Paulin, GP Services Officer

	psychologists working in General Practice	Ms Margaret Peck and Ms Judith Bancroft, Perth & Hills Division of General Practice	General Practice	and Mr Colin Roberts, Eastern Ranges GP Association
3.20 - 3.40		Mental Health: Not a trivial pursuit Ms Samantha Fitzgerald, Corporate Manager, GP Connections	Diagnosis, management and outcomes of depression in primary care (DIAMOND) – an interdisciplinary approach Professor Jane Gunn, University of Melbourne	Interventions across the lifespan for children of parents with a mental illness Ms Elizabeth Fudge, COPMI
3.40 - 4.10	Afternoon Tea
4.10 - 4.40	Panel Discussion: Primary Mental Health Care: The Next Ten Years? Lead by Dr Rob Walters, Chair, ADGP Ltd Prof Ian Hickie, Chair, Better Outcomes Evaluation Working Group Dr Chris McAuliffe, Primary Mental Health Care GP Advisor, ADGP Ltd Dr Tori Wade, SA Division of General Practice Inc Professor Lyn Littlefield, Australian Psychological Society Dr Tony Hobbs, Director ADGP Ltd and GP working in rural practice Ms Marcella Barisic, Ms Alan Peker, yyblue Ambassador Ms Ingrid Ozols
4.40 - 4.55	Closing Address Dr Rob Walters, Chair, ADGP Ltd

Posters:

Access to Allied Health Services component of the Better Outcomes in Mental Health Care Initiative (BOiMHCI) reduces psychological distress and disability. Ms Liz Cleland and Mr Paul Cafarella (Adelaide Hills Division of General Practice)

More Allied Health Services (MAHS) Programme improves psychological functioning in a rural setting. Ms Liz Cleland and Mr Paul Cafarella (Adelaide Hills Division of General Practice)

“As we see it” – Swan Hill Secondary Students – a series of posters developed by Swan Hill Secondary Students