National Youth Mental Health Foundation

Call for Submissions

headspace is the National Youth Mental Health Foundation. The aim of headspace is to reduce the burden of disease in young people aged 12–25 caused by mental health and related substance use.

headspace is calling for submissions from organisations across Australia interested in establishing a Community of Youth Services. The Communities of Youth Services strategy is focused on building the capacity of local communities to identify early, and provide effective resources to young people aged 12–25 with mental health and related substance use issues.

Small grants will also be provided to organisations or consortia to assist in the development of full submissions for subsequent funding rounds.

Applications are required by the close of business on Monday 6th November 2006.

Submission information and application forms are available by registering at www.headspace.org.au

For information contact (03) 8346 8213 or email funding@headspace.org.au.

headspace is funded by the Australian Government under the Promoting Better Mental Health – Youth Mental Health Initiative.
